CAR JUMPED TRACK

Attorney S. A. Barnes and Others Are Hurt.

The I. & L. local northbound car due here at 12:46 today jumped the track on the curve south of town where the track turns to the west from the Pennsylvania right-of-way. The car did not turn over but stopped on the side of the grade with the lower trucks down in the ditch and the others up on the grade a few feet outside the rail. All the glass was broken out of the vestibule and many of the windows of the car were shattered.

There were about fifteen passengers in the car and they were all shaken up and some of them were more or less hurt. Attorney S. A. Barnes, who had been at Crothersville on business, was probably the worst hurt. His back was wrenched and his side was hurt. He was partially helpless and it was with difficulty that he was gotten out of the car. He was taken to his home in an automobile and Dr. Graessle attended him.

Geo. A. Robertson, county surveyor, was in the car. His right hip was badly bruised and probably sprained. He received some other minor bruises. Dr. Lucky attended him.

Samuel Ahlman, who resides on L. G. Heins' farm southeast of town, received injuries to his left shoulder and back. Dr. Hill attended him at the home of Samuel Welsh.

William Ross, of Cana, received injuries to his right side, one rib being dislocated. Dr. Osterman attended him.

Some other passengers were slightly bruised but none are reported much hurt. The conductor, Claude Holton, of Scottsburg, received some cuts on the face. George Hopewell, the regular motorman, but who was breaking in a new man and therefore did not have hold of the lever himself, received a cut on the hand and another on the face. He was in the vestibule back of Wilkes, the new man, who was running the car. Wilkes came out with some cuts and bruises but was not badly hurt. Wilkes lives at Vienna. Wm. Henderson, of Columbus, was on the car but was not hurt. L. W. Richart was also on the car but not injured.

The wreck was evidently caused by the new motorman rounding the curve at such a high rate of speed that the car jumped the track. Motorman Hopewell says he cautioned Wilkes and told him to slow down, but he did not heed the caution. After the wreck the trolley wire was put back into position and cars have been running regularly since.

Playing Golf.

Members of the Country Club are getting a great deal of pleasure out of a series of golf games that are being played. Most of the preliminary games have been played and the winners of these matches will now be pitted against each other.

Mrs. Susan Wright, of Memphis, Tenn., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Brown and family, of W. Second street, since Tuesday, left on the late train Thursday afternoon for Detroit, Mich. by way of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Minnie Miles, of Shelbyville, who has been here for the past two weeks on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Champion, and family, and other relatives, will return home Saturday.

The Capital City bloodhounds, of Indianapolis, were taken to Mitchell on the two o'clock train this afternoon in response to a message received this morning.

Homer L. Simmons, of the auditing department of the West Penn. Railway Co., Pittsburg, was here this morning the guest of H. F. McColgin, auditor of the I. & L. Traction Co.

John Dixon, the old soldier and boot black, returned home from Jeffersonville Thursday where he had been visiting his niece.

Airdome Closes.

The Airdome which, has been running for the past three weeks, did not open for a performance Thursday evening, but announcement is made that it will open again in a few days. It has not been a howling success financially and it is stated that the $160 stock subscribed and paid in mostly by Seymour people, has been donated to the management who agreed to assume all liabilities. At the end of the first three days it is said that the company's accounts about balanced, the receipts for the three days amounting to about $90. The $250 had gone for repairs and improvements, paying the expense of actors in getting here, and their salaries for the three days. The rainy weather has interfered very materially and has frequently made the crowds small and sometimes rained out the entertainment altogether.

This is the third season there has been an attempt to operate the Airdome and every time a number of Seymour people have lost money on it. If there are no unpaid bills left it will be the first time yet it has happened so. Mr. Douglass, the manager, says all bills will be paid in full and that the Airdome will continue to do business.

The immediate cause of closing seems to be a difference that came up among the actors during their rehearsal late Thursday afternoon. It was at first suggested that they dispense with the program Thursday night and open again Friday night but that suggestion caused other differences which caused the company to decide to disband and new players will be secured.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tunley, of S. Chestnut street, left at two o'clock this afternoon for St. Louis, where they will spend four days. Then they will go to Springfield, Ill. and then visit his former home at Bunker Hill, Ill. They will be gone about four weeks. This is Mr. Tunley's first vacation for more than a year. On their return they will move into their home which he recently purchased from Chester Reed at the northwest corner of Fifth and Poplar streets and he will take up his work again as traveling salesman for the Ahlbrand Carriage Company in the states of Kentucky and Tennessee. He has been off the road for several weeks on account of the burning of the factory but has been engaged recently in superintending the work of cleaning away the debris from the old factory site.

Both the Pennsylvania lines and the Big Four are fighting for the freight business which includes the transportation of cattle between Louisville and Chicago. Last night cattle shippers decided to give each road a test. Each railroad company ran a special cattle train from Louisville to Chicago, and the company making the best time was promised the bulk of the business. The Pennsylvania ran a special freight through here last night headed for Chicago at top speed. The freight was being pulled by a passenger engine and about everything else on the road had orders to get out of the way and let the cattle cars pass.

The question of permitting the inmates of the Indiana Reformatory to have tobacco in some of the shops, it is said, will be taken up with the board of trustees at the August meeting. Some of the contractors claim the men will do their tasks better if permitted to use chewing tobacco. If it is given the men it will be furnished by the contractors.

Harrington-Harbaugh Trade Will Be Settled in Court.

Wallace A. Harrington, a prominent farmer in the Bethany neighborhood, a few weeks ago made a trade with Andrew H. Harbaugh, of Freetown, Ind., trading his farm of 195 acres, priced at $15,000 to Harbaugh, for a store building and stock of general merchandise in Freetown, forty acres of land near the same town, 5 lots in Freetown, and a piece of residence property in Terre Haute, said property being valued at $10,000. Upon Harrington's farm was a mortgage of $3,900, Harbaugh was to assume this mortgage and pay Harrington $1,000 in cash. Harbaugh was unable to raise this amount, and being hard pushed by his creditors, went in United States Bankrupt Court filing with his schedule the contract between he and Harrington duly signed, and now Harrington has started a suit to enforce his contract with Harbaugh.

Harrington has possession of all the property involved in the deal; the keys to the house of Terre Haute and has a renter in the house, his son, Ford T. Harrington has been conducting the store at Freetown, but he has no deed to any of this property. Harrington has tendered a deed to his farm but Harbaugh has not accepted it. The question is whether Harbaugh's creditors will be paid their claims out of the farm property or the property for which the farm was traded.

J. A. Cox, of this place, S. A. Barnes, of Seymour, Remy & Berryhill, of Indianapolis are attorneys for Harrington. John H. Kamman represents Harbaugh.—Crothersville Herald.

Conference Closed.

The annual meeting of the Seymour District Conference of the M. E. church closed at Henryville Wednesday afternoon after three days' sessions attended by a good representation from the churches of the district. Dr. M. B. Hyde, district superintendent, presided. The conference went on record as against any reduction in the districts in the Indiana Conference. A movement was started last year to reduce the number of districts from eight to five or six. It was the opinion of this district conference that the Seymour district at least is large enough for careful supervision by the presiding elder. Three candidates were recommended to the Itinerant School which meets at Scottsburg Aug. 2 to 5 to examine the applicants for the ministry. Rev. H. H. Allen, of this city, attended the conference.

Good Bread Wheat.

The wheat from the new crop is a disappointment in the matter of yield as well as appearance, but the Blish Mill advises that it is going to turn out a better bread making flour than any crop of recent years. This is certainly a great satisfaction and the high price at which the new wheat is already selling will offset much of the shortness in the yield.

Good Wheat Yield.

A telephone message from Chestnut Ridge this afternoon states that Jerry Anderson's crop of wheat, consisting of forty acres and which was threshed yesterday and today, made 940 bushels, an average yield of 23 1/2 bushels per acre. This is a pretty fair yield for this year and is one of the best that has been reported.

An elegant luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, potato salad, deviled eggs and ice cold sweet-milk, was served in abundance and very much appreciated by the large number present. The social functions of this order have proven to be very successful and enjoyable features of their meetings and they are also increasing in membership all the time.

Dogs For Fuel.

The city lighting plant has been turned into a dog crematory since the muzzle law went into effect and the dogs that are shot are tossed into the furnaces of the plant and do some good after all. One average sized dog is said to be worth nearly half a ton of coal in making steam.—Linton Record.

ADSCRIPT CLUB

Indianapolis Boosters Coming This Way August 24.

The Adscript Club, of Indianapolis, an organization of newspaper men and ad-writers, has planned to do some boosting along the way when they go to Louisville to attend the national meeting of the associated advertising clubs of America, August 24. They will go by special train and will side track here and remain about an hour. They will carry a band which will give a concert while here. There will be about 300 in the crowd, representing Indianapolis banks, wholesale houses, manufacturing industries, newspapers and other lines of business.

The Adscript Club has a widespread reputation for original and novel publicity stunts and local people may be able to get some valuable suggestions that day. Seymour should show to these boosters that here is the best town between Indianapolis and Louisville. It will be an opportunity for us to do a little publicity business on our own account.

Reports Are Slow.

Only about 3000 of the 8000 domestic corporations doing business in Indiana have filed their annual reports with the secretary of State for this year, according to Frank I. Grubbs, deputy secretary of State. The corporations are required by law to file these reports between the first of June and the last of July, and Mr. Grubb says they are unusually slow this year.

Blanks for the purpose of making the reports are sent out to all of the corporations by the secretary of State, but Mr. Grubb says many of the corporation officers lay them aside and neglect to send them in until the last minute. He is hoping that the officers will wake up and make the returns at once. The law provides a fine of $50 for any corporation that fails to report within the specified time.—Rushville Republican.

Oiled Streets.

New Castle and Connersville have tried oil on some of the streets. The business men of St. Paul are oiling their streets and aver it works very satisfactorily. Manilla and Homer also lay dust with oil.

In Shelbyville oil has been thoroughly tested on East Washington street on the macadam pavement. Stone dust, recognized as the most difficult to lay, is kept down with oil and a condition that threatened to become serious has been alleviated.

Insurance Paid.

Martha Heins, who died on July 9th, held a certificate in the Court of Honor for $1000. The completed claim proofs were forwarded to the Society on July 17th. A warrant for $1000 was received from the Society by Recorder Arthur P. Carter on July 23rd, in full payment of the claim.

Died From Old Wound.

Henry Hoar, sixty-five years old, a retired farmer of Washington county, died at his son's residence, three miles south of Salem, Wednesday, from the effects of a wound he received on July 10, 1863, while Morgan, with five thousand armed men, was robbing the citizens of Salem and burning their buildings.

Mr. Hoar was making his escape from Salem on horseback, and before he had traveled half a mile was shot through the body with a rifle. He fell from his horse and was thought to be dead for several hours. He was taken to his home and nursed to recovery. However, he never regained his former strength and vigor, and he had been an invalid from the time he was shot until his death.

Jason Brown, of Seymour, while representing this district in congress, obtained the passage of a bill granting Mr. Hoar a pension of $50 a month. It is said that he was the only man on the United States pension rolls who was never a soldier or in any way connected with any military organization. Notwithstanding his enfeebled condition he was successful as a farmer and acquired considerable property.

Nearly 102 Years Old.

Grandma Turley, who will be 102 years old if she lives until January, had a dream not long since in regard to a spring on the old Emmet Wright place, east of town, now owned by E. M. Reid. There was nothing special about the dream, but she wanted to visit the old spring, and last Sunday Uncle Joe A. Burton took her out to E. M. Reid's in the auto. She enjoyed the trip very much and was particularly pleased to visit the old place again. She is in all probability the oldest inhabitant in the southern part of the state, and we doubt if there is an older in the entire state.—Mitchell Commercial.

For Good Roads.

When asked to express his opinion of the movement for good roads, Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture, said: "I am for good roads first, always, and last. I am for them because they benefit the farmer, make for the development of the counties through which they run, minimize profanity, help men to keep their religion and make life more enjoyable. If the practical results which the improved highways will bring are demonstrated to the farmers, they will take to the plan like ducks to water."

Neck Broken.

Robert Braxton, an old man and for many years the chief liveryman at Loogootee, was instantly killed at his home at Paoli Wednesday when a horse which he was riding became frightened and threw him off. He was a large man and his neck was broken by the hard fall.

Funeral of William Dunlap.

The funeral of the late William Dunlap, who died at Elizabethtown Wednesday afternoon, will be held from the Burnsville Christian church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Harley Jackson, of Seymour. Burial will be in the adjoining cemetery.—Columbus Republican.

PLAN TO REORGANIZE RED CROSS FORCES

Secretary Bicknell at Work in Central States.

Indianapolis, July 22.—The forces of the Red Cross society in Indiana are to be reorganized, according to the announcement of Ernest P. Bicknell, secretary of the American Red Cross society, who is at present in the city. "The arrangement in Indiana," said Mr. Bicknell, "has worked more successfully than in many other states and has been effective. But we propose to reorganize the society in all of the states of the Union. As in Indiana, we propose to create a state board of about seven members, of which the governor of the state will be president. It will, in fact, be the finance board, and in times of distress this board will issue the call for funds or other contributions. Such a call will bear the signature of the governor and will in itself be of state character. Governor Marshall will approve of the plan and has consented to serve in Indiana, and Noble C. Butler, who has been the president of the Indiana branch, will be a member of that board. The other members have not yet been chosen.

"The next move will be to convert what has been the Indiana branch into a local society in Indianapolis. Its officers will remain the same. Each community can organize a local society. In Indiana we will create one more body. It will be the Indiana Red Cross Stamp society, which will sell the Red Cross stamps at holiday time. The Indiana organization had such signal success in this work that we are loth to lose its system and, furthermore, we will urge on other states the adoption of the methods which President Butler developed so successfully." Mr. Bicknell will remain in Indianapolis several days. From here he will go to Illinois and then to Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota on the same work, which he began in Ohio last week.

Anty Drudge Recommends Pie for Children

Cross Mother—"Those children are worrying the life out of me to bake them huckleberry pie. But I daren't do it. It nearly kills me trying to rub the stains out of their clothes, as well as the table linen."

Anty Drudge—"That's 'cos you don't wash the Fels-Naptha way. Let the children have all the pie that's good for 'em. Fels-Naptha and cold water will remove the stains in a jiffy."

Like medicine, the value of Fels-Naptha soap depends on how it is used. Fels-Naptha is made to wash clothes in cold or lukewarm water. Used that way it saves time, money, health, bother and hard work. Your clothes will be cleaner, fresher and wear longer.

Don't insist on boiling and hard-rubbing in the old-fashioned way. Fels-Naptha isn't made for that.

When you buy a cake of Fels-Naptha, follow the directions on the red and green wrapper as closely as you would the directions on a medicine bottle.

In kitchens, where there are painted walls, women often go to the expense of getting a special preparation for cleaning them. Fels-Naptha answers the purpose better than anything made. A damp cloth or sponge dipped in Fels-Naptha suds will remove all the grease and dirt in a twinkling.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

Something more than an ordinary tonic is required to restore health to a weakened, run-down system; the medicine must possess blood-purifying properties as well, because the weakness and impurity of the circulation is responsible for the poor physical condition. The blood does not contain the necessary quantity of rich, red corpuscles, and is therefore a weak, watery stream which cannot afford sufficient nourishment to sustain the system in ordinary health. A poorly nourished body cannot resist disease, and this explains why so many persons are attacked by a spell of sickness when the use of a good tonic would have prevented the trouble. In S. S. S. will be found both blood-cleansing and tonic qualities combined. It builds up weak constitutions by removing all impurities and germs from the blood, thus supplying a certain means for restoring strength and invigorating the system. The healthful, vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed make it splendidly fitted to the needs of those systems which are delicate from any cause. It is Nature's Perfect Tonic, free from all harmful minerals, a safe and pleasant acting medicine for persons of every age. S. S. S. rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling so common at this season, improves the appetite and digestion, tones up the stomach, acts with pleasing effects on the nervous system, and reinvigorates every portion of the body.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

A Fashion Chat on the Styles of the Day.

The mid-summer season finds but few women who do not feel the need of additions to their wardrobe, particularly in the form of shirt waists or over blouses. These last tend to lengthen the life of many waists, or they may be worn over the perfectly plain separate guimpe. One of particularly dressy character is pictured in No. 3165. The plaited sections create pleasing fullness over the bust line, while a shaped braid trimmed suspender section cut in one piece with the girdle is an attractive and novel feature. As shown, this over-blouse was worn over a perfectly plain guimpe.

For the indispensable lingerie waist, No. 3147 will be found a most desirable model. Tiny tucks arranged in clusters across the front distribute a desirable fullness, deeper tucks formed near the armholes giving breadth to the figure. A cluster of narrow tucks arranged on each side of the center back relieve the plainness of this part of the garment and renders it more attractive. The embroidery design applied to the waist is not an essential to its daintiness, for while it does add to its beauty and will certainly prove charming if used, a waist of fine sheer material untrimmed except by tucks and edging will be found very dainty and cool on hot days. As will be noted short sleeves are illustrated, but if long sleeves are preferred these are also included in the pattern.

A pretty style for a shirt waist of madras, percale or gingham is shown in No. 3164. The box plaited effect produced by the arrangement of tucks is a most acceptable relief from the straight tucks so frequently seen while the low collar and short sleeves are a correct finish for a waist of this character. The trimming observed may be formed of soutache applied as shown or may be replaced by wash braid if desired.

For the distinctly tailored waist a better model than No. 3159 would be hard to conceive. The tucks on each side of the center stitched straight down from neck to belt give the appearance of a plaited bodice, while a long deep tuck extending from the waist line in front to the waist line in back is a pleasing line appreciated by most women. The collar illustrated is one of the newest styles now being exploited by the leading department stores for wear with tailored waists. Widely striped batiste, percale, or madras will develop attractively by this pattern.

The combinations of color seen this season in striped fabrics are particularly alluring, especially those showing rose or blue stripes against an ecru background. With skirts of ecru, rose or blue, waists of these stripes are particularly alluring.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3165 is a Ladies' Over-blouse cut in sizes 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure. It is so cut that it may be closed at either front or back as the fancy of the wearer may choose.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3147 is for a Ladies' Shirt Waist that may be made either of linen or of soft silk, satin or other fabrics of similar weave. It closes in the back, has two styles of sleeves and no lining. The pattern is in sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3164 is a Ladies' Shirt Waist of tailored proclivity presenting short sleeves and rolling collar, although if preferred a tailored collar may be worn with it. The closing is effected at the left of the center front beneath the tuck. No lining is necessary. The pattern is in sizes 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3159 is a mannish type so far as the center of the front is concerned. The note of femininity is introduced in the shoulder plait, the collar of novel cut and the long, close fitting sleeves. No lining is given with this pattern, which is cut in sizes 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure. Prices of these patterns, including cutting and construction guides are 15 cents each number.

CARPENTERS UNION

Building For National Headquarters Dedicated Today.

Indianapolis, July 22.—The handsome three-story office building erected in this city for the national headquarters of the Carpenters' and Joiners' union was dedicated this afternoon with appropriate ceremonies.

The dedicatory services, which were conducted on a platform in front of the beautiful new building in Michigan street, began at 3 o'clock, but the new building was open all day for inspection by the general public.

The dedicatory services were opened by the Rev. W. G. Clinton. There were short talks by Governor Marshall and Mayor Bookwalter and the dedicatory address by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor. Frank Stalnaker will be the toastmaster at the banquet in the German House tonight.

Practically every large city in the country was represented at this dedication, and Indiana carpenters were largely in evidence. President William D. Huber and Secretary Frank Duffy said that at least 400 out-of-town representatives of carpenters, and labor in general, are on hand for the dedicatory service and the banquet tonight.

GALVESTON PROFITS BY ITS HUGE SEAWALL

Repetition of the Disaster of 1900 Was Averted.

Galveston, July 22.—For a time during Wednesday's hurricane heavy loss was feared as the wind attained a velocity of over sixty-eight miles an hour. The sea wall, however, protected the city, and aside from some damage on the beach front, where two bathhouses were destroyed, the city suffered little. There was no loss of life. The storm has now abated. The property loss will probably not exceed $100,000.

Besides the destruction of the two large bathhouses on the outside of the sea wall, washed away by the waves, there was some loss to small craft and fishing piers on the jetties were destroyed. The storm was a West Indian hurricane.

Far out in the gulf, on Tarpon fishing pier, seven miles from the city, where the storm whipped over the jetty into the bay, ten fishermen were washed from the rocky promontories into the gulf and drowned.

The hurricane swept the entire gulf coast with an intensity and viciousness that has seldom been equaled in a country where destructive storms are not unusual. It had its origin on the Atlantic coast and swung westward and southward, devastating the entire gulf coast, even as far south as Matagorda bay. That some lives were lost and that much property was destroyed is the general belief. With wires down and railroad communication hampered, the exact loss is impossible to estimate.

From other cities in the affected area come tales of narrow escapes and much destruction of property. The only anxiety expressed now is for the smaller towns, villages and summer resorts with which the gulf coast is so thickly settled. In the history of other gulf storms, it has been the villages which suffered most from the waters. The entire gulf coast is very low and offers absolutely no protection from the storm of waves.

Loss of Life Elsewhere.

Galveston, Tex., July 22.—It is reported that there has been considerable loss of life at Palacios and Blessing, two small towns on the gulf in Matagorda county. It is also reported that Bay City suffered greatly from the hurricane.

TUMOR OF FOUR YEARS GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

South Bend, Ind. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They said that only an operation could help me. I am very glad that I followed a friend's advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it has made me a strong and well woman, and I shall recommend it as long as I live." — Mrs. MAY FRY, Lindley, Ind.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE publicity columns of the REPUBLICAN always call attention to bargains that the people can not afford to overlook. Now is a good time to buy goods.

THE fact that President Taft has taken the same view of tariff revision that the "progressive" senators have taken from the beginning shows that he understands what the people want done with the tariff question.

A GREENSBURG preacher is declaring a boycott on the Decatur County Fair because he does not like the advertising posters put up by the management. He is advertising the posters and now everybody in Decatur county is particular to look them up. Thus is he making prominent the very thing he wants suppressed. He is helping along the fair management by making a poor method of advertising valuable.

A DECISION of the court of appeals of New York, in a case which grew out of a dispute over the right to a car seat, holds that placing a piece of baggage in a seat does not pre-empt the space. The court rules that passenger cars are to carry persons, not baggage, and that filling a seat with luggage confers no title to the seat on the owner of the grip. In other words if a traveler wishes to make sure of sitting in an ordinary day coach he or she must take a seat and hang on to it.

J. E. Greeley, vice president of the I. & S. Traction Company, was here from Louisville Thursday evening. Mr. Greeley is one of the parties interested in promoting the proposed line from Aurora, through Madison to Scottsburg.

A HARMONIOUS SETTLEMENT

By Some Process Akin to Wizardry the Opposing Elements in the Tariff Conference Have Been So Subdued That Differences Which Have Heretofore Stood in the Way of a Settlement Promise to Vanish—The Influence of the President Has Brought About a Condition Which Augurs Well For an Early Agreement.

Washington, July 23.—President Taft apparently has brought about a tangible situation with regard to the tariff where uncertainty existed before.

Yesterday's conference concluded with a consultation at the White House last night participated in by the president, Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne, at which the chief executive was assured that a harmonious settlement of the differences existing between the two branches of congress is practicable.

This conclusion was reached from the fact that harmony pervaded the various conferences held at the capitol yesterday. The senators opposed to the "free raw material" program were consulted by Senator Aldrich and a committee representing the same position on the house side, held a conference with Chairman Payne. In addition the house conferees met in the afternoon to have the experts of the senate finance committee explain the senate changes in the cotton schedule.

It is evident that the president by informing the conferees that the disputed points were before them for settlement brought about a condition that augurs well for an early agreement of a conference report. The chief executive was able to get a better insight into the obstacles to the "free raw material" plan by his conference with the two leaders than was possible in so large a gathering as that which was present at the dinner Wednesday night.

MURDER MYSTERY

Body of a Man Found in a Trunk at Lynn, Mass.

Lynn, Mass., July 23.—The body of Minos K. Monjian was found in a trunk in the room of Vahan Nalbandian in a boardinghouse here. Both Monjian and Nalbandian were shoe workers. There was a bullet wound and several knife wounds in the breast. The body, which was fully clothed, probably had been put in the trunk Saturday night or early Sunday morning, for Monjian was seen by his sister in Boston Saturday afternoon. That the motive for the murder was not robbery was shown by the fact that the man's bankbook, his gold watch and chain and some loose change were found in his pockets. The police say that since the victim's return from a trip to Chicago about two weeks ago, he had earned but $15 and probably had spent nearly all of that. The police are anxious to find Nalbandian, who is also known as Frank Jones, and who was an associate of Monjian, whom they believe may be able to throw light on the mystery. Nalbandian has been missing since Monday, and the police believe he has sailed for a foreign port.

Chief Burckes says he is satisfied that the murderer and Monjian went to Nalbandian's room either Saturday night or early Sunday morning, and that while there the crime was committed.

NEW FRENCH PREMIER

President Fallieres Offers High Post
to M. Aristide Briand.

Paris, July 23.—Aristide Briand, brilliant scholar, orator and avowed Socialist and architect of the final chapters of the separation law, was summoned to Elysee palace last night and asked to reconstruct the Clemenceau cabinet. M. Briand promised his answer today, stating during the course of an interview, that unless he could unite the republican groups he would go no further.

A Million Dollar Mortgage.

Bloomfield, Ind., July 23.—A mortgage for $10,000,000, executed by the Indianapolis Southern Railway company in favor of Charles A. Peabody of New York, and Alexander G. Hatch of New Jersey, has been filed with the county recorder. The instrument covers the property of the company between Indianapolis and Elmhurst.

New Trolley Road Project.

Carmel, Ill., July 23.—Preliminary steps have been taken by Kansas City (Mo.) capitalists for the building of an electric railway from Carmel to Fairfield. The survey will be taken in a few days and the line will be used for both passenger and freight traffic.

AGED WOMEN REMEMBERED

Mrs. Jones's Will Provides a Quarter
Million Dollar Home For Them.

Galesburg, Ill., July 23.—By the terms of the will of Mrs. Mary E. Jones of Knoxville, an estate of $600,000 was distributed among a large number of beneficiaries. The most important bequest which came as a grateful surprise to the people of Knoxville was that of $250,000 for the erection and maintenance of a home there for aged women. It is stipulated that the building must not cost more than $50,000 and that the income from the balance of the gift will be used for its maintenance.

The bequest is placed in the hands of S. Minot Jones of Chicago and George Starnes of Galesburg, nephews of Mrs. Jones, and Hubbard Huggins of Knoxville, as trustees.

The Presbyterian, Methodist, and Christian churches of Knoxville will each receive $3,000 from the state.

During rioting at the plant of the N. R. Allen Sons company, tanners, at Kenosha, Wis., three strikers were shot.

MOTION QUICKLY OVERRULED

Judge Hoover at Watseka Would Not Listen to Motion to Quash the Indictments Against Dr. Miller, Mrs. Saylor and the Grundens, but Sustained a Motion to Continue the Cases Until the September Term of Court—Bitter Fight For Control of Saylor Estate.

Watseska, Ill., July 23.—Under indictment for the murder of J. B. Saylor, the Crescent City banker, on July 11, Dr. William Miller, Mrs. J. B. Saylor and John and Ira Grundens were brought into court to make their pleas and accept the indictments. All pleaded not guilty. Free P. Morris of counsel for the defense, made a motion to quash the indictments. He was quickly overruled by Judge Hoover, but his motion to have the case continued for pleas and trial until the November term of court was sustained by Judge Hoover, and there will be no special term called. John Grundens appeared to be badly frightened and dazed by the proceedings. No effort will be made, it is understood, to get bail for Ira Grundens. There will be a bitter fight between Mrs. J. B. Saylor and her dead husband's family for control of his estate when the appointment of an administrator comes up. Under the law Mrs. Saylor has the first choice, but the Saylor brothers will endeavor to have one to their liking appointed.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

VARYING TESTIMONY ON IMPORTANT POINT

Location of Deadly Bullet Wound

Annapolis, Md., July 23.—Variance is noted in the testimony before the court of inquiry which is investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton at the academy two years ago. This was shown in regard to the location of the bullet wound which had caused the young Oregonian's death. It would appear that it would have been a difficult matter for Sutton to have shot himself, lying prone on the ground with three men on top of him, if the bullet entered the top of his skull, as Surgeon George Pickrell, in charge of the marine hospital at that time, who examined Sutton's body, testified it did. Colonel Charles A. Doyen, commandant of marines at that time, testified that he examined Sutton's body immediately after the shooting, felt the wound in his head, and that it was located on the right side, a little behind and on a line with the top of the ear.

Sergeant James Dehart of the marine corps testified that some officer at the scene of the shooting handed him a revolver with the curt command to "take this." It was dark and he could not see who the officer was. Dehart soon afterward threw the revolver into the bushes on his way to the barracks, and on going out to look for it next morning, could not find it, he testified.

Snatched From Watery Grave.

Galveston, Tex., July 23.—As if from the bottom of the sea, seven of the storm-wrecked victims from the Tarpon fishing pier were picked up alive off Redfish reef in the upper Galveston bay opposite North Galveston. With the report of the rescue of these men, hope for the safety of the other three persons is builded much stronger.

Involved His Friends.

Evansville, Ind., July 23.—George Harmeier, a grocer who left the city two months ago under mysterious circumstances, is alleged now to have uttered false signatures to mortgages and other negotiable paper involving his friends for nearly $15,000.

Freeport, Ill., July 23.—William D. Ryan, an Illinois Central railroad conductor, fired five shots at James Grant on one of the principal streets here. None of the shots took effect. Ryan refused to discuss the shooting when locked up. The police are mystified over the attack.

CANAL ZONE POLICE PLEAD FOR RELIEF

Want Something Done to Stop

White Slave Traffic.

New York, July 23.—A letter from Second Lieutenant C. W. Barber, Second United States infantry, the second assistant of police of the canal zone, which has been given out by the local police, contains a plea for the stoppage of the "white slave" traffic between the United States and the canal zone. Writing to former Police Commissioner Bingham, Lieutenant Barber declared that many American girls, especially actresses, had been lured to Panama and that "the life they lead there would make your heart bleed."

The letter tells the story of three chorus girls who, the writer says, were lured to Panama on the promise of an engagement in a local playhouse and who were saved by the captain of the steamer Tagus, who took them down.

The girls met for the first time on board the steamer. When their story reached the captain he took them in charge and saw that they were brought back to New York. The woman who is alleged to have engaged them to come to Panama was arrested. Later she escaped, but detectives sent by the New York police arrested her at Guayaquil on July 10, the police say, under the name of Spencer.

The police will meet the steamer Allianca, due here from Panama today, to ascertain if the woman calling herself Helen Spencer, who, a wireless message said last night, had vainly attempted suicide on board, is the woman of that name now being brought back from Panama by two New York detectives.

HIRING NEW MEN

Trolley Road Refuses to Treat With Strikers or Public.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 23.—The traction strike, which has for four days stopped all traffic on the Fort Wayne & Kendallville branch of the Toledo & Chicago interurban road, has reached a stage where the company, which is in the hands of a receiver, refuses to treat either with the men or the business men's committees. The company contends that the men struck without reason and before the superintendent could get his answer from Receiver Mortimer, who was in New York. The men have been discharged and the company is hiring new men.

Why They Like Iodoform.

"Train robbers, burglars, safe blowers, holdup men and, in fact, nearly all that class of professional criminals who resort to deeds of violence are greatly addicted to the use of iodoform," said a former California sheriff. "These fellows after committing some crime besprinkle their clothing liberally with the loud smelling fluid. They also pour it on their guns and knives and the tools of their trade. The reason is that they often make hurried flights in which they are not infrequently trailed with bloodhounds. There is nothing a bloodhound hates worse than the scent of iodoform, and it has been repeatedly the cause of the dog abandoning pursuit of a fugitive malefactor. Knowing this, the crooks are liberal buyers of an article that may tend to cause their freedom from capture."—Baltimore American.

My kidneys were out of order, the passages of the secretions being so frequent at night as to greatly break my rest. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured a box at Milhouse's drug store and took them according to directions and was soon cured. I gave a statement to this effect on August, 1899, and now in August, 1906, can confirm what I then said as the cure has proven to be a permanent one."

PROVED FRUITLESS

President's Efforts to Unite Tariff Conference Was Unavailing.

Washington, July 22.—The dinner and conference at which the president's closest advisers and the tariff conferees were brought together last night in the effort to settle the differences regarding the tariff bill, ended at 11:30 o'clock with the disputes over raw materials no nearer adjustment than they were before the dinner invitations were issued.

Only one question was determined beyond appeal, and that was that the conferees will have to settle their own differences. Pains were taken, however, to convey the impression that this decision is not indicative of any absence of appreciation of the president's efforts. It merely confirmed what the "elder statesmen" had asserted from the first—that tariff making is trading, and the shrewdest dealer and the strongest section is bound to get the best of the argument. That this truism is responsible for the insistent movements in the house and senate and party revolts in middle western states does not alter the situation.

Briefly stated, the representatives of the house and senate practically admitted that they were unable to forecast the outcome. Some of the conferees said after the dinner that no conference report would be signed until both houses had been canvassed to the probability of its being adopted. No one can say how much this will delay adjournment of the tariff session.

Dawson surrendered to the police and Zelig went to the police station to appear against him.

A Fashion Chat on the Styles of the Day.

It is the young miss who is now growing anxious about her summer wardrobe included in which she is planning to have many pretty dresses that will tend to enhance her grace and charm. It is difficult, however, to select styles suited to her age as the now-a-days girl of sixteen has ideas very similar to her old sisters'. Of course, there are girls at that age who are fully matured and others who are still very childish. In that case it depends more upon individuality than style.

The little tot at the age of four will feel quite ladylike when she eagerly dons her mother's trailing gown and struts like a peacock before the mirror so proud of being "grown-up." It is practically the same with Miss Sixteen; she, too, desires to be "grown-up" and tries to imitate the women of fashion in their extremes as best she can.

The better course, however, is to dress simply and tastefully and endeavor to bring out the girlish charms instead of hiding them. For summer wear simple dresses embellished with dainty lace or embroidery look much finer and are far more stylish than those heavily garnished with silks, braids, etc. Many fabrics are seen in the various stores that can be made up prettily for the young girl, and illustrated here are several good styles which are neither too youthful nor too old.

Light colors such as pink, yellow and pale green are very popular this season and most of them are extremely becoming to the fresh beauty of the young girl. These colors in dainty, transparent materials make charming party or afternoon dresses, the simpler made the better.

Empire and princess styles are both popular and the Dutch or round neck is cool and pretty.

Checked gingham, piques, etc., make up stylish shirtwaist suits which are so modish for morning wear and embroidered linen suits and dresses, pongs and rough silks are considered correct for afternoon wear.

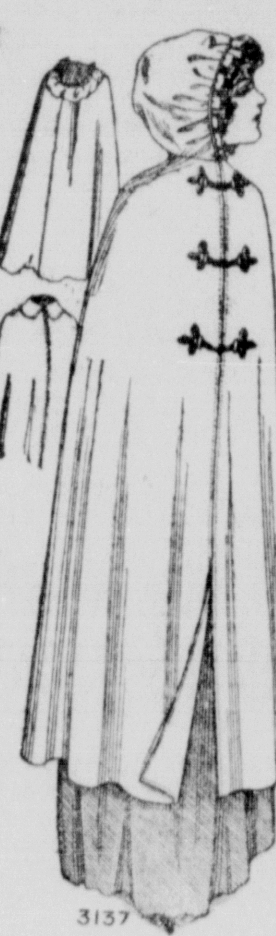

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3062 is an unusually attractive model suitable for development in foulard, soft silk, linen, or one of its various imitations or for ordinary gingham or chambray. As designed it is worn over a separate guimpe, the waist of the gown being attached to a five-gored skirt that is made with an inverted plait at the center back. The pattern is in sizes 12, 14 and 16 years.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3139 is an extremely smart style for the simple shirtwaist suit that in this instance was developed of Old Rose chambray. Both skirt and waist close a little to the left of the center front, a narrow belt joining them together and making a one-piece frock. The yoke is adjustable and may be of embroidery lace or tucked lawn. Tucks at the armhole edge provide a becoming fulness, an inverted plait creating fulness in the six-gored skirt. The pattern is in sizes 12, 14 and 16 years.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3064 is a charming type of coat suit that is very popular with young girls. It is pretty for linen, silk or worsted fabrics or would develop charmingly in pique or rep. Much garniture is not required and the bridging design shown may be developed of soutache or tubular braid or of fabric covered cord. The coat is three-quarter fitted and fastens with two buttons at the bust line, while the skirt is in five gores with an inverted plait at the center back. Patterns for this model are in sizes 12, 14 and 16 years.

Patterns of the above designs, including cutting and construction guides, are 15 cents each number.

A Fashion Chat on Styles in Wraps.

It is a season of wraps. Not only are we informed of this fact by arbiters of Fashion but on all sides is discovered indisputable evidence as a wrap of some kind complements almost every costume.

It seems to make little difference whether the toilette be for day or evening wear, a suitable wrap to be worn if denials must be chosen to match. Two-piece coat suits of silk, linen and worsted abound, while the three-piece suits are equally conspicuous, for American women delight in the complete costume that they can wear with comfort over a guimpe and the assurance that skirt and waist are firmly fastened together with no possible chance of a separation.

With these one-piece gowns the wraps worn are varied indeed, style and fabric alike distinctive and both depending upon the fabric or character of the gown. The wrap is severely tailored, frock a coat of similar cut and finish is used for the accompanying wrap; sleeveless coats with those for dressier wear and lace coats for dressiest attire.

Long coats similar to the one illustrated in the lower figure are among the styles fancied whether for the coat suit or for the separate wrap.

In length and line this wrap is of distinguishing appearance and attractive for the separate coat or for the suit wrap. It develops handsomely in black satin or any of the rough silks, and may be lined with self fabric or soft silk or without any lining whatever, as preferred. As the finishing adjunct to the street toilette of linen, silk or worsted, this coat is equally adaptable as it may be made of any of these fabrics, lined or not, as fancy dictates.

For evening wear the burruss or mantle form of cape was the favored mode during the winter season and the popularity accorded it has led to the resurrection of the cape shown above and designed on the familiar lines of "Red Riding Hood" fame.

These wraps are useful on many occasions and particularly for wear over light dresses whether at home or at the seashore or mountains. While primarily designed for reproduction in cloth or silk, pique can be attractively developed into a wrap of this character if desired. As a rule, pale pink or other delicately tinted lawns are used for lining, not however, because of the warmth afforded but because of the daintiness which is thereby added to the garment.

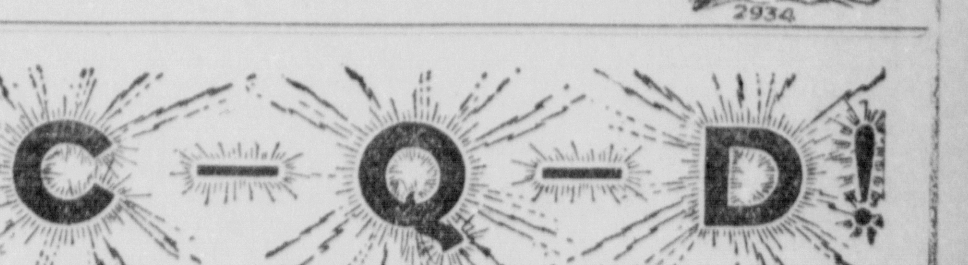

Broadcloth is the material most favored, although pongee silks, particularly the lustrous, satin surfaced weaves are delightfully alluring especially when the lining is of self color and fabric. This development makes a wrap that is rather heavy and is preferred for cooler seasons.

Serge is as practical as any material that is used especially if the wrap is desired for summer wear and white serge is so easily cleaned that every woman who delights in the possession of a white wrap can be made happy in one of nominal price but exquisite daintiness. The hood shown is not a necessity as for it may be substituted the collar shown in the smaller view.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3137 is a Ladies' Circular Cape, that may be made with a hood or have the neck finished with a rolling collar as preferred. The pattern sizes are 32-36 and 40 inches bust measure, the medium size requiring 2 1/4 yards 44 inch material.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3024 is a Ladies' Long Jacket, three-quarter fitted and with full length two-sleeved coat sleeves. The lower edge of the pattern is perforated for two outlines, either of which may be used. The pattern is in sizes 32-34-36-38 and 40 inches bust measure.

Patterns of these designs, including Cutting and Construction guides, are 15 cents each number.

WHOLE TOWNS DEVASTATED

Appalling Word Comes From Gulf Storm Region.

NEWS SLOW IN GETTING OUT

Details of the Death and Destruction

Wrought by the Hurricane Which Swept in Off the Gulf Wednesday
Show That Perhaps a Score of Lives
Were Lost, While the Property Damage May Count Up Into the Millions
—Whole Towns Practically Wiped Out, While Some Towns Have Not Yet Been Heard From.

New Orleans, July 23.—That far heavier toll in loss of life and property damage was levied by the hurricane which Wednesday swept the gulf coast of Texas and Louisiana than at first supposed was indicated when points which had been cut off from communication, again got in touch with the outside world. Many isolated places yet remain to be heard from, and anything like a full list of dead and injured may not be completed for several days to come.

That the property loss will run into the millions was made a certainty when whole towns which were not at first believed to have suffered were definitely reported to have been wrecked. Over a score of persons are now believed to have lost their lives, and reports from points not yet heard from may swell the death list materially.

Some of the towns along or near the Texas coast where it is feared great damage may have been done but from which nothing has yet been heard,
are: Lavaca, Indianola, Rockport, Goliad, Victoria, Columbia, Edna and Matagorda.

In Louisiana points in Cameron parish are reported to have suffered severely from the hurricane. There was a loss of two lives at Mudd Pass and much property is reported as having been damaged in the settlements at Creole, Berry, Grand Chenier and Johnson's Bayou.

HOUSTON'S ESTIMATE

The Word as It Came From the Storm
Stricken Towns.

Houston, Tex., July 23.—A total of a score of lives was claimed by Wednesday's hurricane which swept the Texas gulf coast from end to end and which fatally injured four others and seriously wounded sixteen, according to the details of the storm which have begun to arrive here. Whole towns were devastated and the wreck and ruin to property will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

One is dead at Eagle Lake; three at Bay City; one at El Ampo; four at Palacios; one at Wharton; one at Ponderton; one at Ramsey. Four were fatally injured at Palacios; one seriously injured at Eagle Lake, and fifteen at Bay City.

Trains from twelve to fifteen hours late have crept into Houston, and freight trains are lost throughout the stricken district. Details of the disaster on the southwest coast of Texas are meager, as wires were stripped from the poles and railway communication is impossible.

The territory around Bay City seems to have been the center of the storm, which moved southwest from Galveston. For four hours there a seventy-mile wind swept across the country, carrying everything before it.
Velasco, a small town near Bay City,
is reported demolished, but with no loss of life and none injured. Every building was unroofed or partly demolished, and the town today lies in four feet of water. People are escaping in boats from the Colorado river, a mile away.

Reports from the special train on which General Manager W. C. Van Vleet of the Southern Pacific railroad, left Houston, indicate that the lower coast country suffered greatly. The loss will total thousands of dollars, and in some districts reports state that the storm was worse than the disaster of 1900, which devastated Galveston.

Eagle Lake seems to have suffered on a par with Bay City, but few houses escaping the fury of the storm.
The same situation is reported from Lissie, Nowata and East Bernard, though there were no fatalities.

At Bay City about 50 per cent of the business section was damaged,
including the opera house, one bank,
the courthouse, the new high school building and the city jail. In the jail the cages were left standing and the prisoners were exposed to view, but were safe. Six prisoners escaped from the jail at Richmond, when the windows had been blown in and while the guards were repairing the damage.
At Galveston bay the situation is not as bad as at first reported. No part of the railroad bridge, which spans the arm of the bay between the island and Virginia Point, was washed away, but some fifty feet of the structure was thrown badly out of alignment by a huge barge and other small craft, which were washed from their moorings and pounded against the piling.

CAUGHT HIM WHILE ON HIS VACATION

Terre Haute Bank Clerk Faced Arrest On Return.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 23.—Following his arrest Howard Phillips, aged twenty-two, a clerk at the Terre Haute National bank, confessed taking some $4,000 in the last three years. The thefts were made when making exchanges with other banks by holding out money and by manipulating the accounts. While he was away on a vacation his books were examined and he was arrested when he arrived home.

Young Phillips has been in Kansas City on his vacation, and he thought his thefts so well covered that he was taken by surprise when arrested. He had about $1,000 on his person. The examination of the books so far shows that about $4,000 in small amounts was taken. The big amount of cash he had with him causes surprise. He had spent money freely, and it was supposed he had used it as fast as he took it.

Not long ago a woman brought suit
to recover from him some diamonds which he had taken out of a pawnshop for her for about $200. She asserted that he was only to keep them for her.
Instead he had given them to a young woman friend.

Phillips is twenty-two years old and a member of a well-known family. He received $65 a month at the bank.

A Hot Springs Hotel Tragedy.
Hot Springs, Ark., July 23.—With her husband a witness to the attack but too unfeeling to aid in the struggle, an unknown man, presumably a burglar, unable to free himself from the grasp of Mrs. Elie P. Dorrance of Helena, Mont., shot and killed the woman in her apartments at a loc-hotel. After briefly telling of the circumstances, when attaches of the hotel reached the scene, Dorrance collapsed and has been unable to make a further statement.

Another 3-cent break in the price of wheat for July delivery, following a slump of similar magnitude the previous day, brought the price of that option on the Chicago board of trade down to $1.12.

A NEW RELIGION

Dr. Eliot Predicts a Fundamental Change in Faith.

Cambridge, Mass., July 23.—In an address before the Harvard summer school of theology, Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, prophesied the advent of a new religion.

"It will not be bound by dogma or creed," he said. "Its workings will be simple, but its field of action limitless.
Its discipline will be the training in the development of co-operative good will. It will attack all forms of evil.
There will be no supernatural element; it will place no reliance on anything but the laws of nature. Prevention will be the watchword and a skilled surgeon one of its members.

"It will not deal chiefly with sorrow and death, but with joy and life.

"God will be so immanent that no intermediary will be needed. Its priests will strive to improve social and industrial conditions. The new religion will not attempt to reconcile people to present ills, but the promise of future compensation."

Tobacco Men Fail to Agree.
Lexington, Ky., July 23.—The conference of representatives of the Kentucky Burley Tobacco society and American Society of Equity broke up in disorder, the Equity men walking out of the meeting following the refusal of the Burley society to grant the Equity society's demands. The failure to get together means war between the two organizations in the proposed pooling of the tobacco crop of 1909.

GIRL GETS DAMAGES

Jury Awards $300 in a $5,000 Breach of Promise Suit.

Petersburg, Ind., July 23.—Robert Arnold, a wealthy young farmer living just east of here, failed to carry out his agreement to marry Miss Janie Weathers, a neighbor's daughter. The jury brought in a verdict giving the girl $300 damages. The suit was filed for $5,000 and was void of scandal.
The girl had made all preparations for the marriage, which was to have taken place several months ago, when the would-be bridegroom decided he did not wish to get married.

Hammond, Ind., July 23.—More than

ing of valuable woolen dress goods,

TRAVELING COOKING SCHOOLS

Germany Reaches Rural Districts in Most Effective Way.

The teaching of cooking in Germany is carried on with German thoroughness. Not content with establishing rural schools where farmers' daughters might learn the domestic arts, Germany has now instituted traveling schools. It was found that the rural schools did not meet the needs of the whole rural population. The bulk of this population is made up of small farmers, and in such homes the help of the daughters is needed so constantly that they cannot be sent away from home to school. Neither can the money be provided for their expenses, and many farmers are afraid, too, that after their daughters have been away to school they will not be willing to return to the simple conditions of the farm.

Since the people will not go to the schools, therefore the schools are being sent to the people. Baden took the lead in the establishment of traveling schools of cooking and sewing, and the idea is spreading rapidly. Hesse, Sassau, Franconia, the Palatinate, all have their traveling cooking schools or have begun to establish them. The Bavarian Farmers' association has established two such schools and selected two nuns as teachers. The association pays the teachers and most of the other expenses, so that the cost to the pupils is very small. In some cases the township or village pays all or part of the expense of pupils who could not otherwise afford to attend the school.

It has been found that the traveling school has many advantages in addition to its accessibility. The teaching can be adapted to local conditions, and the pupils can at once put into practice what they have learned. Furthermore, the teacher can visit the homes of the pupils and see that they really understand what has been taught.

Michigan City, Ind., July 23.—Lagging struck the Grand opera house,
St. Stanislaus Polish Catholic church and three dwellings. The church was set on fire. All losses are small.
